ORDER:

In the circumstances reported by the Commissioner Prohibition & Excise Department, Hyderabad in the reference read above, Government have observed that, after being appointed as Prohibition & Excise Sub-Inspector by direct recruitment Sri B.Srinivas was required to pass, among other tests, the Accounts Test for Sub-ordinate Officers Part-I also, within the period of his probation as per the A.P. Excise Sub-ordinate Service Rules, 1961, prevailing at the time of his appointment, which were superseded and fresh A.P.P.&E Sub-ordinate Service Rules were issued, vide G.O.Ms.No.950, Revenue (Excise-I) Dept., dated:28.11.1998, according to which pass in Accounts Test for Executive Officers is stipulated in place of the Accounts Test for Sub-ordinate Officers Part-I. The new rules were issued while the individual was under probation i.e., before completion of his probation period. But, not after completion of his probation period. Hence, though the individual was appointed at the time, when the old rules were prevailing, he had to pass the Accounts Test for Executive Officers' in place of Accounts Test for Sub-ordinate Officers Part-I' as per new rules. Had the new rules issued after completion of the period of the probation by the individual, he has to pass the Accounts Test for Sub-ordinate Officers Part-I, as per old rules. Since the individual passed all the requisite tests, including the Accounts Test for Executive Officers within the period of his Probation, the change of the date of commencement of his probation in terms of rule 16 (h) of Andhra Pradesh State and Sub-ordinate Services Rules, 1996 of General Rules does not arise.

2. Government, therefore, after careful examination set-aside, the orders issued in the reference 2nd read above and order for commencement of his prohibition from the date of his appointment in the category of Prohibition & Excise Sub-Inspector, to fix his seniority in terms of ranking assigned by the Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission.

3. The Commissioner of Prohibition & Excise Department, Telangana, Hyderabad, shall take necessary further action accordingly, in the matter.
